THE MUD IS GOING TO FLY AT THE CIVIC CENTER

(Bridgeport, TX- October 25th, 2006) – Florence, South Carolina is about to get muddy on Saturday, November 18th at the Florence Civic Center. A fun-filled night with the Red Neck Nationals featuring the Hot Mud Bog Drag Races, Tuff Truck Races and 4 Wheel ATV Quad Races.

Starting at 7:30 pm the action-packed night begins. For the first time ever in Florence, the 4x4 Hot Rod Mud Racers attack a 4 foot deep pit of South Carolina mud. “We’ve put on a lot of events all around the country, but the Red Neck Nationals has got me really pumped! I’m ready to finally bring the Mud Bog Drags to the Civic Center.” says Ed Beckley, owner of Checkered Flag Productions.

Some of the best racers in the Carolinas are gearing up for the ATV Quad Races. Watch these local drivers tear up the track and race for the win. Pro and Amateur classes will be available for open entry.

If that wasn’t enough, local Hot Rodders are welcome to enter the Tuff Truck Races. Drivers in Pick-Ups and Jeep type vehicles attack an obstacle individually to beat the clock. Winners are based on the quickest time. Anyone over 18 can enter.

Another new contest being brought to the Civic Center is the Ugly Truck Contest. The crowd judges the Carolinas’ Ugliest Street Truck, Jeep, or even Van. Patch work paint and the more dints and dings the better. Bring out your old Junker to show everyone it’s actually worth something. Trophies will be awarded to the top 3 Ugliest Trucks.

All events are open entry, local and area drivers are encouraged to enter these events. For information on entry fees and other related questions, contact the Checkered Flag Office, (940) 683- 4742. Tickets are reserved and can be purchased in advance and the Florence Civic Center Box Office, at any Ticket Master location, or at www.TicketMaster.com.
